Extra Special Private Viewing
at Leighton House

The home and purpose built studio of the artist, Fredrick Lord Leighton. An oasis of tranquillity and beauty. Wonderful Victorian art and sculpture with a fusion of Orientalism to impart knowledge for the scholar, student and amateur alike. The House has the quality of magic; stepping into a past through its entrance door you will be transported into a past which still has the power to reach out to touch our creative heart. This special visit will appeal to the interior designer, students and those interested in garden design.

Agenda for the Day

- 10.45am Meet outside Leighton House for the visit.
- 12.30pm Walk to Holland Park, the estate of the Holland family.
- 1pm-1.45pm Sandwich lunch. We will discuss the background history of Cope Castle – now Holland House and home of the Holland Park Opera, followed by a walk through the gardens, stopping at highlights including the Japanese Garden.
